

C O P Y

July 6, 1950

Mrs. Edna Spies
Dixon, Iowa

Dear Mrs. Spies:

There are still sixteen books that have not been returned from the 301 that we sent you in October, 1948. You have done so well in getting the rest back to us and I am hoping that your good record will be continued.

Please use the enclosed postcard and let us know at once whether we can hope to clear your record here. The missing books are:

Breslin
Chrystie
Costain
Croy
De La Roche
Du Maurier
Floren
Gallico
Gardner
Hubbard
Kilpatrick
Kimbrough
Nordhoff
Street
Tippett
Woodruffe-Peacock

Tamarack tree
Riddle me this
Black rose
Mr. Meek marches on Building of Jalna
King's general
Wolf dog range
Secret front
Case of the turning tide
Wolf song
Gentlemen should marry
How dear to my heart
Dark river
Gauntlet
Singing farmer
King's rogue

Sincerely yours,

Blanche A. Smith, Librarian
State Traveling Library

BAS:bjs
encl:cd.

c.Elizabeth Hage
Scott County Library
Eldridge, Iowa

I'm quite sure these books are lost but if they should turn up in your travels I hope you will send them home!